

Dear Brazilian Jiu Jitsu Athlete,

As part of your BJJ gym membership, you are now covered under the UKBJJA's member-to-member liability insurance cover. This protects you in the unfortunate event that you injure a training partner and they decide to pursue action against you. Although very unlikely, this can happen, so it is good to know that you are protected.

Please note that this is liability cover only – it does not cover you for personal injury or loss of earnings.

As part of your BJJ gym membership, you are also entitled to free individual membership of the UKBJJA. Full membership allows you to take advantage of special member offers, discounts or access to member-only events and allows you to compete for national ranking points.

In order to take advantage of your membership, you will need to complete the form below and return it to your instructor. This form provides consent for the UKBJJA to add you to the membership database on Smoothcomp.com and keep in touch with details of your membership.

Your privacy is very important to us and we will not share or misuse your data in any way. Our privacy and data protection policy can be found here:
